

I have been disturbed by the recent decision by you, the FCC, that would allow corps like Clear Channel to further take control of the media in my area. I live in the OKC area and most of the radio currently available here is already owned by CC. Maybe this doesn't seem so bad to you and maybe I'm just a whiny ass, music is something I love and enjoy. It brings happiness to my life and I actively search it out. Some time around the '96 or '97 a radio station opened up in this area at 94.7 FM... It was a great relief for most people my age here because the offerings from CC until that time were pitfull. All was great until CC realized they were loosing out so they bought out this godsend and replaced it with adult contemporary music! What were we left with? The same old shit we had before that's what. It really peaves me when I see this happen because I have to live here and put up this crap. If CC can't or won't give me what I want they SHOULD be replaced by another entity that can and will. They should not be allowed to just buy them out so I am stuck with the crap they try to force me to listen to. Give me choice or I WILL find a way to get what I want.

It amuses me when I hear everyone bitching about internet piracy of music... Guess what... probably wouldn't happen near as much if we were given what we want instead of what some corporate executive says we want. For me, I intend to continue to download music because currently it's the only way to find out what else is out there. Radio won't play if so I'll get it and listen for myself. It's as simple as that. If that makes me a criminal, sorry. As far as I'm concerned, If you were doing your jobs I wouldn't be in this position. So until I see reform, and I mean real reform not throwing me a bone, I think I'll continue to ignore what I know to be the right thing to do because my elected officials have decided to ignore their responsibility to keep you in check! When you decide to look after my best interest, as someone in your position was hired to do, I'll decide to do my part too. Now pull your hands out of Big Money's pockets and tell "W" to stop whispering sweet nothin's in your ear and get to work. Put on some headphones and listen to some Bjork or something, whatever!!! Just make sure you keep me happy.
